Elise Knudson continues to lead the way, putting up 13 points and grabbing 15 boards. Erica Meyer miraculously recovered from her broken toe on Monday and scored 12. Nicole Meyer and Halle Wammock both put in 10 points.

The 8th grade A2 girls raised their season record to 3 wins and 0 losses with an exciting 27 - 26 win over Ellensburg last night. The lead changed hands numerous times and wasn't decided until the last few seconds of the game when WV stole a pass and sealed the victory. The girls were again led in scoring by Mackenzie Thurlby with 8. Courtney Figuroa and Hallie Irvine each finished with 6. Kali Thomas added 4, Emma Olney contributed 2 and Taylor Simmons finished the scoring with 1. Aubrey Reiersen dominated the boards and Deanna Noll led a defensive effort that controlled the game. Great job girls!

Panthers lose at Ellensburg

The A-1 Panthers ran into a hot shooting team from Ellensburg yesterday and lost the Tigers on their home floor. Kaela Saner led the team with 9 points, Samantha Meyer tossed in 6 points, Alyssa Barden and Taylor Karnes each scored 4 points and Victoria Wilcox had 2 points. Next game for the Panthers is at home on Monday with Naches.

The WV 7th grade girls A team took to the court last night and played their most solid game of the year, earning a 46-29 victory over Ellensburg. Parker Webb came out and played her most aggressive game of the year, pacing the Panthers in scoring a season high 17 pts, along with numerous steals in the back court. Elly Teske once again held down the paint, scoring 16 pts of her own. Lexi Davis managed to play the entire game last night and only had 2 fouls. Llesenia Massey stepped up her game as she and Natalie Nagle did a much better job in breaking the E-burg press. The girls play their next game on Monday at home vs. Naches.

The panther wrestlers hosted 3 other teams last night in what turned out to be a tough night of wrestling. There were many strong individual performances last night which didn't always show up as victories but the Panther Wrestlers continued to battle through and improve as wrestlers. Notching victories last night were Jaden Lynn, Gage

Darbyson, Jared Cozzocrea, Colton Moen, Corbin Tash, Eric Towsley, Colin Robert, Mateus Brown, and finally Eli Sturgill's started his season right notching two victories.
