

WEST VALLEY JUNIOR HIGH PANTHER BULLETIN

February 7, 2012

CRUSH SALES BEGIN TOMORROW!

Buy your crush a CRUSH tomorrow, Thursday, or Friday before school, at lunch, or after school... you can even remain anonymous! $2 per crush and they will be delivered on Valentine's Day!

Attention all incoming High School Freshman Football Players:

Mandatory Parent/Player Football meeting this Thursday, February 9th at 6:30 in the West Valley High School Auditorium. They will be discussing football camp, spring training, and fundraising. Make sure to have a parent there if you plan to play High School football next year!

The panther wrestling team traveled to Selah last night to participate in a four team match against Selah, Ellensburg and Wapato. The wrestling was tough and competitive and the victories for the panthers didn't come easy.

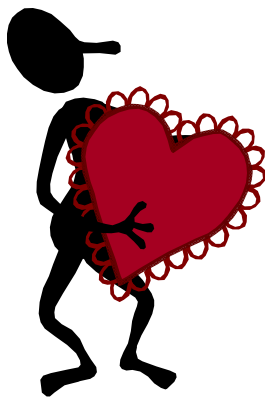

Leading the Panther charge with an early pin Mateus Brown set the bar high. Other wrestlers winning with pins were Jaden Lynn, Eric Towsley, Gage Darbyson, Corbin Tash, Colton Moen and Mason Eutenier, Caleb Barrette, Jarred Cozzocrea, Harmon Brose and RJ Tabert.

Every Panther wrestler, worked hard and wrestled well. We will be looking to post more victories tomorrow with our first home match of the season. Come out and support your panther wrestlers!

LOVE IS IN THE HAIR

You're invited to "Love Is In The H-air" a Valentine's Day dessert, silent auction and hair donation to benefit Locks of Love, to be held at the West Valley High School Commons from 7 pm to 8:30 pm. Bring your favorite sweet-heart, family and friends to buy some sweet treats and perhaps pick up a gift at the silent auction. All proceeds will be donated to Locks of Love. If you would like to donate your hair as part of this event, please contact Adriel Kunkler through the West Valley High School office.

VALENTINES DAY IS COMING...

With Valentine's Day fast approaching please remind students and staff about what cannot be transported on our buses.

We cannot transport glass vases or glass of any kind in compliance with WAC 392-145-015 (6).

We cannot transport balloon bouquets as they have the potential to obstruct the bus driver's vision.

If a student attempts to board a bus with these items they will be sent back into the office to make parent contact for a ride home or leave the item to be picked up by a parent.

Thank you for your assistance J

"1st Semester art students please stop by the art room to pick up your projects! If they are not taken home by Friday February 10 they will be disposed of. Thanks, Mrs. Gaskell"

The 7th grade A girls basketball team notched their first win of the season last night with a 29-23 battle vs. East Valley. Defense was the name of the game as Lauryn Peters and Natale Nagle shut down EV's top player for much of the game. Ellie Teske, Kali Kruger, and Allie Conrad held down the post and blocked numerous shots. Teske led all scorers with a game high 13 pts. Llesenia Massey took charge of the offense in the second half, calming the Panther attack down and making pin point passes. The Panthers play their next game Wed. at Ellensburg.

The 8th grade girls A2 team raised it's season record to 2 wins and 0 losses, defeating East Valley by a score of 48 - 2. The Panthers were led by Mackenzie Thurlby with 18. Hallie Irvine, Aubrey Reiersen and Emma Olney each contributed 6 and Kali Thomas finished the scoring with 2. Deanna Noll led a very stingy defense limiting the Red Devils to only 2 points. Another great team effort girls. Next game this Wednesday at Ellensburg.

PANTHERS BATTLE EAST VALLEY BUT LOSE 50-32

The A-1 Panthers made a great comeback closing within 8 points against East Valley in the 4th quarter. The Panthers fought their way back powered by the 12 4th quarter points of Kaela Saner. East Valley hung to win the game 50 to 32. Scoring: Kaela Saner 18 points, Alyssa Barden 4, Samantha Meyer 3, Maria Caldwell, Taylor Karnes and Courtney Figueroa all had 2 points and Victoria Wilcox added a free throw. Next game for the Panthers is Wednesday at Ellens-

The 7th grade girls basketball team travelled to East Valley yesterday and came away with a very one-sided win. Nicole Meyer and Elise Knudson each put up 14 points. Every player scored at least one basket as well as each player grabbing at least two rebounds. Despite a nose bleed that kept her out of the game for over a quarter Knudson also led the team with 12
